About Art Camp

There are three two-week Art Camp sessions per summer running Monday through Thursday. The content of each session is unique to that session. Children may attend all three sessions of summer Art Camp. Each session has an identical morning camp (9am-12pm) and an afternoon camp (1-4pm). Campers are not allowed to enroll in both morning and afternoon camp of the same session.

Art Camp is for children ages 5-11. Art Camp enrollment is capped at 45 students. Children are further divided into groups based on age to facilitate teaching: yellow group, ages 5-7; red group, ages 7-9; and blue group, ages 9-11. Each group will generally have no more than 15 students.

Art Camp is multi-disciplinary, including Visual Art, Ceramics, Cooking, Dance, Drama, and Music. Each group rotates between three different classes per day. Teachers plan a 1-hour lesson for each scheduled teaching day. Lesson plans may be varied to suit the ages of each group. There is a parent presentation the last hour of the last day of each Art Camp session. The morning presentation is at 11am and the afternoon presentation is at 3pm. The visual arts classes display projects which the students take home after the presentation. The performing arts classes prepare a brief presentation to summarize and/or illustrate objectives learned.

Priorities

1.) Safety

The CacheArts and Art Camp guidelines and procedures are designed to help us protect children from harm while in our care. Each Art Camp employee is expected to follow those procedures and to use sound judgement. Safety includes both physical and emotional safety. Employees and participants are expected to treat each other respectfully.

2) Enjoyment

Summer Art Camp is fun! Children get to try new things, learn about their own talents or interests, and enjoy the society of their peers while working on individual projects and cooperating in groups. Staff help children enjoy their time at Art Camp so that they want to come back each summer.

3) Merit

Art Camp curriculum should include legitimate artistic learning opportunities on the introductory level. Each discipline will design lesson plans to ensure selected objectives are met yet also allow for in-class flexibility and adequate student exploration. In each genre, students should gain:

- A. Performing/Creating Skills
- B. Observation & Appreciation Skills
- C. Background and/or Practical Applications
